TEMPERANCE WORKERS.

The Ladies of the Convention Pass Appropriate Resolutions.

The following resolutions were adopted at the recent convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union:

We, your Committee on Resolutions, beg leave to submit the following:

Resolved, That we will use our best efforts to create a public sentiment in the minds of the voters of this Territory in favor of constitutional prohibition, so that upon its admission into the Union it will come in as a prohibition State.

Resolved, That we will do all in our power to advance the interests of the temperance cause among the young people of our land, by the establishing of new "Bands of Hope" and the encouragement of those already formed.

Resolved, That we endeavor to secure the use of such text books in our public schools as shall best inform the children and youth of the baneful influences of alcohol.

Resolved, That we tender to Mrs. Shields our thanks for her presence at our convention and for her words of counsel and encouragement.

Resolved, That we tender to the choir our thanks for the excellent music with which they favored us.

Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the trustees of the Baptist Church for their kindness in giving us the use of their new and beautiful church.

Resolved, That we extend to the kind friends who have entertained the delegates our thanks for their hospitality.

Resolved, That we tender our thanks to THE GAZETTE for the kind notices both before and during our convention.

Mrs. J. S. SMITH.
 Mrs. H. M. PRATT.

Captain J. G. Clancey, the popular and wealthy sheep owner from Puerto de Luna, arrived in the city yesterday. To A GAZETTE reporter he said that the facts regarding the recent trouble between the sheep and cattle owners near Puerto de Luna had been greatly distorted. The military company had committed none of the acts of lawlessness attributed to them, but had, as soon as the Governor's order was issued, given up their arms. The Mexicans and the sheep raisers in the district were all peaceable and law-abiding people, and had it not been for an incendiary element, which had recently made its appearance among them, no disturbance would have occurred.

Mr. Frank T. Robinson has opened up his samples of fine clothing at the Plaza Hotel, and they are now ready for inspection. He made a special effort during his visit in the East to secure a nobby line of fine goods and his samples cannot be equalled anywhere. An elegant suit can be ordered for from $20 to $30, a perfect fit being guaranteed in every instance. Mr. Robinson will in the future be in his sample-room every morning, and every afternoon he will be found in East Las Vegas.

A Handsome Present.
 The Stock Grower yesterday received a very handsome painting in oils from the easel of Mrs. Wilson Waddingham. The subject is a mounted cowboy on guard of a herd of cattle. The execution and finish are excellent, and prove Mrs. Waddingham to be an artist of more than average ability. Messrs. Pierce, Hardy and Warner are delighted with the new acquisition to their already elegant quarters.

The Sisters of Loretto received quite a fright last evening. About 9 o'clock a man, whose name was unknown, managed to get into the convent. He was under the influence of liquor and stumbled around in an aimless sort of way, and managed to frighten the Sisters rather badly. They sounded an alarm, and, help arriving, the unwelcome visitor was ejected.

A party of young ladies from Quality Hill were out horseback riding yesterday afternoon. They went as far as the Hot Springs, where they were delighted to hear of the safe return of Messrs. W. B. Scott and J. Davidson, who were supposed to have perished in the mountains.

 When you desire an appeaser for the longings of the inner man, don't forget that "The Snug" can furnish you with the most delicious bivalves ever shipped to this city in every style desired, stewed, fried, pan, roast or raw in the most palatable manner.
